A Anique Sentence.

The sentence of a convicted embezzler to reform, live an honest, sober life, and make restitution to those he had wronged, is departure in criminal jurisprudence from the ages-old procedure. A young man in Los Angeles had embezzled $5,000 of the funds of the theater where he was employed, according to his own confession. Judge McCormick pronounced this sentence on him:

"You shall stay at home nights.
You shall remain within the limits of this county. You shall not play billiards or pool, frequent cafes or drink intoxicating liquor and you shall go immediately to work and keep at it until you have paid every dollar you stole. Violate these terms and you go to prison."

Shorthand By Correspondence.

Can be learned in less than half the time required by the old systems. Mr. A. W. Weeks of Chipley, Fla., mastered the principles in three weeks and wrote in short hand and read correctly TWENTY LETTERS for his first lesson in the dictation book. Miss Francis Roberts and Mr. Joe Hall completed the manuel in a very short time and wrote ten letters for their first lesson in dictation; they having also several other studies.

One college that teaches this system exclusively had an enrollment this year of nearly one thousand students.

Address,
G. V. ANDERSON, Pres.
West Florida Business College,
Chipley, Fla.

5 or 6 doses of "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c.

Why Don't You Go To Church.

You are "too tired to go to church." That's sheer nonsense.
There isn't a more restful place anywhere than the church. You are going to lie around the house all day; doze in a hammock; loll in a rocking chair; go to sleep over a book. That isn't resting, that's loafing. Tell yourself, honestly—did you ever in all your life see who looked rested? Did you ever see a loafer who didn't look tired all the time? The people who try to rest are always tired. Resting is the hardest work in the world when you make work of it. One hour in church, one hour in the quiet; the music, the sermon, the reading, the uplift which comes from the new channels into which your mind is lead, will rest you more physically, morally, intellectually, than all the day spent in trying to rest says Bob Burdette. Why don't you go to church?

We had a pleasant call from L.
D. McRae Thursday afternoon and enjoyed his conversation and ideas on different subjects; come again Mc.

If you, or any of your family go away for a visit or a summer mer vacation, or you have relatives or friends come to see you, phone No. 3 about. We can't do all our work and "catch" all the comers and goers in town.
